

the house, read the second time and passed without amendment.

Mr. Gibbons then moved that the house do now adjourn. This motion was negatived.

The bill reported by Mr. Stewart of Anne-Arundel, entitled, An act to provide for filling up vacancies in the board of trustees of Severn church, was taken up for consideration, in just turn, conformably to the 40th rule of the house, read the second time and passed without amendment.

Mr. Hood then moved that the house do now adjourn. This motion was negatived.

On motion by Mr. M'Mahon of Allegany,

The house then adjourned until to morrow morning nine o'clock.

---

TUESDAY, March 3, 1829.

The house met. Were present the same members as on yesterday.

The clerk having made some progress in reading the proceedings of yesterday,

On motion by Mr. Millis, the further reading thereof was dispensed with.

Mr. Steuart of Baltimore city, presented a petition of Julia Gwynn, of the city of Baltimore, the widow of John Gwynn, who was a soldier of the revolution, praying that some provision may be made her, in consideration of her late husband's revolutionary services; which petition was referred to the committee on pensions and revolutionary claims.

Mr. Watkins presented a petition of Priscilla Daley, of the city of Annapolis, praying that the levy court of Anne-Arundel county may be authorised to place her name on the pension list of said county; which petition was referred to the committee on the subject to which it relates.

The several bills of this house, passed yesterday evening, were sent to the senate for concurrence, the titles whereof are as follow:

A supplement to an act, entitled, An act to authorise the trustees of the poor of Charles county to purchase land and build a new poor's house.

An act empowering the commissioners of Harford county, in their discretion, to build two fire proof offices for the use of the clerk of the county and register of wills, for the safe keeping of the records appertaining to their respective offices, in the town of Belle Air.

An act to make valid a deed of bargain and sale and release from John G. Michael Morningstar, of the state of Ohio, to Jacob Poe of Frederick county.